Be Somebody

LYRICS

CHANGE

The world is changing fast, it's all changing you've got to change with it, come along and change it some more

What's pulling us down,
Is it gravity or is it greed,
Who's drinking the water, Nothings' everlasting, nothing comes between us when we show, a little love, a little understanding,

so come on go, go, where you've never been,
and show, show, just a little bit, of love to go, into the unknown, a change will set you free

Who's driving the wheel, steering us into trouble, looking out only for themselves who gets to choose, is it laid out right in front of us, who begs to differ,

so come on go, go, where you've never been
and show, show, just a little bit of love to go, and follow the light, a change will set you free.

Looking out your window, what do you see, a whole lot of trouble, who you gonna be,
Some of us are mystified, some just don't wanna believe, but you can mean so much, won't you take the lead, you could be notorious, or wonder all alone, search within yourself, it's bound to show

Be somebody, be somebody,
Be somebody, somebody you know

Settle down you crazy child, no need to rush, causing all sorts of pain, and dreams are crushed, why you acting oh so strange, why you misbehave, did you suffer a fall from grace, now you lost in rage you could be forgotten, in your neighborhood, or you could be quite something, oh yes you could

Be somebody, be somebody

Don't let the time, start playing tricks with your mind, give it a try, leaving the torment behind

Hear me darling, I got this one little thing to tell you, and I hope it's ringing true All your life you're wasting time, worrying about what could have been,
Be somebody, be somebody, won't you be somebody you know.

Hear me darling, got to think things through Be somebody, somebody thats you.

GET TOGETHER

It's early in the morning, rolling out of bed, still lingering, all last night, all in the back of my head, won't you come on over, won't you see things through, all this talking, thought provoking, make a man turn blue

Lately I'm thinking, it's getting out of hand, all broken memories, time to make a stand, Don't look any further, search within your soul, a man goes wild so easy, all getting out of control

Feels alright, feels so true,
Faith in one another, see I burn for you,
we should get together, we should get together get it together, we should get together

Everybody's gone missing, nothing will suffice, who rights the wrongs nowadays, who pays the price, I'm a strong believer, in a righteous cause, losing sight of what matters, I think we need to pause

Where's everybody leaving, heads sinking in some phone, I need to feel you closer, closer than ever before Won't you come on over, help this man get along, find me some purpose and I'll know where I belong

Feels alright, feels so true,
faith in one another, see I burn for you,
we should get together

When you feel a little awful, and you need a friend, who cries out in the middle of the night, who's there till the end, you and your worries, and your search for peace, Questioning the days, you're never quite at ease, brothers and sisters, your family, everyone together, plain for us to see

we should get together

Won't you take me home, shake my bones?
brothers and sisters, everyone come along,
we should get together.

DOWN EASY

Maybe I'm not as strong as I use to, maybe I took a lesson on the way, But you can take my word for all its worth, and I'll have nothing more to say

Cause all it takes is a little love, and all the kindness in your heart, for when the road was a field of obstacles bringing you down Well you know the harder the falling, helps soften the blows, lay me down, down easy this time around

All I want is calm amidst craziness, the sense that all was somehow meant to be, fragile are the wounds forever healing, and here we stand longing to believe

Down, down easy, down, down easy, down, down easy, down

Take me close in your arms, feel a trace of sadness I won't finch When you see me swimming in the rhythms of the night, I tell you in your warm embrace, feels alright.

FALLING DOWN

Though you can't hold back the time, we forget, the passing of days, when your back's against the wall, playing hard to get, feeling oh so small

All the faces on the street, so polite but infinite mirrors deep,

When you're falling down, faces come out of the dark, that hopeless sound, they won't bring us down, Even drowning all alone, falling down

There's a fire in your heart, it wears you down, gotta dig so deep, burns you inside out, Scared of the unknown, everybody talks got to get back on your feet, nobody knows,

In our fortress made of glass whispering to ourselves, how long is all this gonna last

Why the somber looking face, though I'm weary, there's an open gate, someone's bound to take your place, you must must keep at bay, the garden of hate.

BURNING IN THE NIGHT

All the times we said we would not pick a fight, all the promises we broke along the way, somewhere along the line a bond was broken, and the voices keep on ringing in our heads,

*Give me just a reason, I'm burning in the night, it's driving me all crazy, I need to claim what's mine
Give me back my freedom, swallow your pride,
I'm breaking with every move, in the night*

And for all the differences, we might or might not share, there's a distance in the way you wish to be, still somewhere all hidden deep, I know you only wish me well, and the dreams you wish to keep remain the same

Burning in the night, I'm burning in the night

*It takes you over, again and again,
it takes you over, again and again,
sometimes you wish we'd never crossed that line*

*Give me just a reason, I'm burning in the night,
it's driving me all crazy, I need to claim what's mine
Give me back my freedom, swallow your pride,
I'm breaking with every move, in the night*

*Burning in the night, I'm burning in the night
it takes you over, I'm burning in the night*

For all the differences, we might or might not share, there's a distance somewhere hidden deep, I'm burning in the night.

I'LL BE GONE

*I'll be gone where the light, gonna shine so bright, I'll be music and the sun, gonna be as one,
I'll be gaining in delight, I'll be putting up a fight I'll be gone out of sight, I'll be singing through the night,*

*I'll be gone from it all, and the chips are gonna fall,
Where the souls aren't draining, and the kings ain't reigning, I'll be running this debate, I'll be sealing my fate,
I'll be gone
Say, is this how much we've grown, Days becoming nights alone,*

*Now I know, no matter where I go, I'll follow something more, I'll be away,
I'll be gone*

*I'll be gone with the joy, of so much to accomplish, I'll be gone with the boy, with the never ending promise, I'll be sound in the knowledge, and profound in the homage, well away from the doubt, the conflict of the now, I'll be gone in respect, don't know what you expect,
May the cynics have their day, who's to have the last say,
I'll be gone when its done, you won't know what's begun,
I'll be gone
These, the dreams for this new dawn, Reach out, it's hard to see beyond,*

*Now I know, no matter where I go,
I'll follow something more, I'll be away, I'll be gone
When I go, you'll be the first to know, it's somehow bound to show, I'll be content, I'll be gone*

*I'll be gone in the night, i'll be gone well out of sight I'll be gone in delight, I'll be gone without a fight, I'll be gone cause I know, there ain't nowhere else to go,
I'll be gone even though, i can take it all.*

UP TO US

Honey, don't you think its kind of funny, grass is greener on the other side, how we chose to be blind Sunny, won't you see beyond the money, nothing seems to be running as you like,
are we loosing our minds, give it time

All your life, ready for paradise

Maybe it's up to us, no whining and no need to kick a fuss, I promise you that this I know as much, get on with it, Baby it's up to us

Honey, what's the use in all the hurry, through yourself at the deep end, see what you might find,
I got it, I'm already gonna be starting, stop the pushing and the fighting, leave your troubles behind, give it time

Get on with it, I'm telling you, Get on with it, no more excuses,
All excuses behind,
all your life, ready for paradise.

FAR

Maybe its fine, happens all the time, maybe we're living in denial moments they pass, what is there to last, who takes command of your life

Let go the fears of old, tomorrow's yours to own who dares to go beyond, No matter where you go, always remember so,
To find your own way home

Maybe we're losing touch, I'm thinking out that, Lately its all too much, why are we always Far, I'm reaching out, ready to be far away from the doubt

Castles of sand, at the palm of your hand, fragile's the world around us, cynics they laugh, some call for witchcraft, choosing escape from it all,

Remember as a child, breaking through, running wild dream as big as you want How we lost our way, dangerous games we play we rage and fall away

Blissful, sublime, this fairytale divine, lost within perfect ideals, Pushing us down, cries are heard the world around,
We know too well how this feels

Maybe its fine, happens all the time, maybe we're living in denial.

OH MOUNTAIN

Why am I feeling, I got nothing to hold, why the mountain is never gonna fold, all your screaming and the crying of old, why am I feeling, we gotta let it go Oh mountain, oh sunshine, Oh lord

No protection, no monies all right, no redemption in the jungle of the mighty, all you're climbing a broken ladder, Don't look down, its only getting harder
Oh mountain, oh sunshine, oh lord

Oh mother, what's that sound, Oh mountain, when the sun is beating down

You got your problems, and you got your song, no more feeling someone doing you wrong, no rewards if you think it all comes easy, take your chances, go face the breeze,
Oh mountain, oh sunshine, oh lord.

I'm all done with breaking balls for fun, now the living has only just begun, what's your story once this all is done, go chase something beneath a burning sun,
Oh mountain, oh sunshine, oh lord

Take me, take me, take me to the higher ground.

DON'T YOU WORRY

Don't you worry about a thing, don't you worry about the bling bling, all the troubles the future brings, feel what your heart is longing to sing,

Don't you think it's time to see, beneath the surface, all the jewelry, pay more attention to the things you need, no one's above whatever truth may be,

*Every time I look in your eyes, I can feel your pride, something in the way that you move, all you keep inside,
Don't you worry*

They may tell you it's a lonely road, then they'll question all the virtues you own, keep it together for it's you alone, riding this roller coaster home

Im not ready to give up on you, you've got your pride, won't you come on through, you got me restless what you gonna do, leave all them troubles, it's all up to you

*Every time I look in your eyes, I can feel your pride,
something in the way that you move, all you keep inside, Don't you worry, you've got nothing to hide*

It's not them, it's all up to you, leave all unanswered, if you want it to, just make a simple wish, make it come true let all the pride just come on through.

FRIEND

Friend, there's nothing I can say,
I know I've been away for so long,
I've been a victim of the times these days

Friend, you got your imaginary ways, hell of a reputation come what may,
I've been morning since the day you left

Man these bones feel heavy, Boy this head is weak, racy heart, torn all apart, I've been meaning to find words to say

Babe, find well within yourself, some comfort in the rain, hey hey, may the autumn leaves be washed away

Friend, here and there, Friend, feels good to know that,

Friend, funny when you discover that something about you, and where your head is at when you know you got me by your side

Hey, we all got better things to do, I've been alone, don't know about you when it feels as if you're running wild Friend, where you at.

I NEED YOUR FIRE

Hey lady how I need you so, feels empty this troubled soul, I'm ready to gain control, pick me up and don't let me go,
oh baby I need your fire

Oh baby Im feeling down, got to get a grip, stop messing around, from the shadows I'm gonna emerge, quit cliff hanging living on the verge,
Oh baby I need your fire

Burn, all your kissing, Burn, yes I'm missing, Burn oh how I yearn for your sweet touch, girl I know this much, I need your fire!

This animal we're all inside, craving something you just cant hide, flame's rising but it wont last, this fire is burning fast,
Oh baby I need your fire

Hey Lady I'm body and soul, I'm all in, shake, rattle and roll, Clap your hands, let me feel your fire, I burn for you let me take you higher,
Oh baby I need your fire

Baby's good to me, she's the air I breathe, burning ring of fire, I've got to believe, no matter what I see, this fire is running wild, I need your fire.

Fire, I need your fire, Fire, I need your fire.
